County Building Project Moving

The project for a new Crawford County Building is moving about as fast as it can be reported this week by John Williamson, chairman of the Crawford County Building Authority. He spent two days last week with architects and with the bonding agency, architects drawings for the building are progressing well and the exact location on the land purchased at the end of Michigan avenue has been decided upon, Williamson said.

It is hoped in the near future to have an architect's sketch of the new building and the proposed new building will be basically of a store design with the court in section on a slightly higher elevation so progress can be made on the plan. Part of the program until drawings for the building are completed in order that cost estimates can be made, the chairman said. At the time that the financing for the proposed new Crawford County Building can be decided, then steps on the bonding program will be undertaken.

The Crawford County Building Authority is planning a public hearing at the present Court House on the drawings are completed in order to show to any interested persons the proposed building and layout and to answer any questions that the public may have concerning the building program.

SEVEN MAN TEAM

Water Resources Commission In AuSable River Water Survey

One of Michigan's best known trout streams will be subjected to a comprehensive water quality survey by the State Water Resources Commission this week. A seven-man team will begin collecting samples from the upper AuSable River on Wednesday, Aug. 17, it was announced today by Loring P. Oeming, Commission executive secretary.

This 48-hour, around-the-clock survey includes collecting water samples from 23 stream locations, testing the content and measuring the volume of waste water (effluent) discharged from the Grayling and Roscommon sewage treatment plants and the State Fish Hatchery as well as making streamflow measurements.

W.R.C.'s survey team will collect water samples from a point two miles above Grayling down to Mio, a distance of some 58 river miles. Samples also will be taken from the east, north and south branches of the AuSable. Approximately 300 samples will be collected and delivered to the Commission's Lansing laboratory for analysis.

In determining the river's water quality the samples will be tested for the amount of dissolved oxygen present, the concentration of various chemical components, including those nutrients responsible for the production of excessive plant growths, and the quantity of solids and oxygen consuming substances present in the stream. When all of the data has been compiled and analyzed the Commission will be able to make recommendations for the protection and enhancement of the AuSable as a trout stream.

On Wednesday the 24th the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Grayling between 12 noon and 6 p. m. at the American Legion Hall. To date, our program has been successful, however, the last few Bloodmobile visits have been less than outstanding. There seems to be a general feeling of apathy towards the program. We must all support this vital program. If only 3% of our county population would donate their blood to save a life we can once again say, "yes, we support our Blood Program." For an appointment call Derek McEvers, 348-4471. Below are some of the pertinent facts about the program.

Grayling's Bear Mountain Lodge Under Construction

Manistee Group Seeks "Action"

The Upper Manistee River Association after holding its initial meeting on July 25th is moving forward with a hunt for members to staff "action" committees.

In a letter sent to all members and prospective members and dated August 13th, the Board of Directors of the Association apprised all of the meeting held on July 25th and of the action taken then.

Enclosed with the letter was an addressed postal card in which the receiver could indicate what committee he would prefer to work with. Listed were: Littering, pollution, campsites, zoning, fishing and canoeing. There was also a space for further work for the Association to undertake which might be indicated.

As the Association grows in membership and these "action" committees are staffed, further work will be undertaken in the many areas which the group feels are needed.

Kiwanis Club Notes

By Wes LaGrow

This week's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling was held Monday evening at the Chief Shoppenagons Motor Hotel with vice president John Latuszek presiding. President Bruce Carlson and several other club members were in Traverse City attending an inter-club meeting there.

Bill Scheer spoke to the club members about possible help for an auto safety check in Grayling at a later date.

Bureau To Aid Local Contractors

A new license law going into effect September 1, 1966 will regulate the procedure for licensing and bonding, according to Lenton G. Schullhorn, Director of the Department of Licensing and Regulation, for all Michigan contractors and builders.

Schullhorn explained, "Formerly only eight counties in the lower southeast corner of the state were affected by the law. Now, the entire state will be involved."

"Residential Builders and Contractors will be required to be licensed and bonded. The bond provisions have been the great concern of the industry and to correct this problem the legislature, last March, enacted legislation providing for a fairer determination by the Board."

Another provision of the new law requires contractors to file a credit report along with their applications. In an attempt to help local contractors, the AuSable Regional Credit Bureau, whose main office is in Tawas City, will hold a sort of seminar on the subject and will process credit reports for all local contractors free. The date has been set as August 24 (next Wednesday) when Gene Balinger of the Bureau will be at the Grayling State Bank from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. The Bureau will furnish the required forms to contractors along with a post paid envelope to send to their office for a credit report.

The State Licensing and Regulation Board has provided that all licensees doing less than $200,000 gross annual volume must submit a $2,000 license and permit bond with their application. Licensees doing over $200,000 gross annual volume must submit a $5,000 license and permit bond. Also, no fingerprints will be required.

Schullhorn stressed that the board and the department have kept in mind the problems of contractors in establishing these rules and regulations, and felt the new law will better protect the public and legitimate operators.

Applicants are urged to be sure they secure the proper application form pertaining to their particular business organization. Proper forms may be obtained from the county clerk office, beginning August 15.

Reactivation Successful

AuSable River System Property Owners Association Tops 100

The AuSable River System Property Owners Association has advised the Avalanche office that the membership since the reactivation of the Association this summer has reached over one hundred members.

Harry Goodhue, President of the Association, stated that the officers and board are happy with the response the property owners have given them, and that the program of work formally adopted by the Association is being acted upon. At the reactivation meeting, June 18th, Harrison Goodhue was elected President and Franklin Hills was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

Harrison Goodhue has been affiliated with the Cadillac Motor Car Division of General Motors Corporation for thirty-nine years.

For the past sixteen years and presently he is Production Manager of Cadillac Motor Car Division. He is a devoted fly fisherman and a dedicated conservationist. He has had a year-around home on the AuSable Main Stream for many years and he and his wife plan to become permanent residents of the community in the near future. Mr. Goodhue brings to the area many years of civic experience from his association with civic matters in Detroit, and conservation experience from his affiliation with Ducks Unlimited, National Wildlife Society, and National Audubon.

He first fished the AuSable as a boy in 1925. The following year his father, Dr. Herbert H. Hills, became a member of the old Rainbow Club on the Main Stream, the club no longer being in existence. Thereafter he made the Rainbow Club his headquarters and fished the AuSable every summer using a boat and a guide.

He and his wife bought property on the Main Stream of the river between Stephan and Wakeley Bridges and in 1941, built a home there where they have lived ever since. They have a daughter, Catherine, who is a student at Hillsdale College.

Mr. Hill has fished extensively all over the United States and has traveled widely in Europe and Africa as well as in the United States and Canada.

Both the officers and board of the Association are devoted to the AuSable River and its watershed and are pledged to the preservation of the activities of the Association for the continued use of the AuSable River and tributaries as a fully rounded recreational area in keeping with sound conservation practices.

Surviving are her husband, Walter C. Roe, three daughters, Mrs. Al Cowan and Mrs. Frank Zamboni both of California and Mrs. Walter Clyma of Grosse Pointe, a son, Marshall Roe of Franklin Hills.

ASSEMBLY LINE PROVES PROGRESS

Every revival of old Charles Chaplin movies produces a lot of laughs over the original Ameri- can assembly line, but the twist- ed nature of the humor still seems to escape modern audiences, ac- cording to the Chamber of Com- merce of the United States. In his droll way Chaplin made the assembly line look like the last step in the degradation of the working man, reducing him to the role predicted for him by Karl Marx: The despised "tool" of a growing capitalist economy.

Marx realized that capital and technology could combine to in- crease the productivity of workers, and thus bring economic progress, but he predicted that capitalists would get all the benefits.

Introduction of the assembly line brought dramatic, visible proof of his error. Mass production could only mean that our economic system was providing for the many, rather than the few. It meant that the many had the means to buy, therefore they had to be sharing in the increasing wealth.

No wonder the assembly line quickly became a hated symbol and an object of ridicule for anti-capitalists!

Now the revolution has come, but instead of being the one pre- dicted by Marx, it is a technolo- gical one that is sweeping the in- dustrialized world with far greater force than communism could ever have hoped to generate.

In the United States, advancing technology has freed so many men from factory and farm work and created so many job opportunities for them elsewhere that we now have a service-oriented economy.

More than half the labor force is employed in the service trades, in which there is no assembly line at all.

In the factories, the assembly line is automated, the tedious work is eased, the worker's dignity is secure.

Leisure time also has increased and the common man enjoys a way of life superior in many re- spects that of the very rich in Marx's day, when there was nothing to compare with modern plumbing, central heating, electric lighting or the automobile.

On the streets and in many cul- tural and recreation centers, you can no longer tell the wage earner and the millionaire apart.

And the trend continues to favor the working man. In 10 years be- fore this year, the following has happened:

PRODUCTIVITY (per man hour) UP 33%.

WAGES (per hour, manufactur- ing) UP 40%.

PROFITS (percentage of invest- ment) UP 0.1%.

It makes you wonder whether Marx himself might not have pre- ferred it this way if he could have foreseen the possibilities.

SHOW-OFF

Harry is "showing-off"—and he certainly has a most appreciative audience!

We all "show-off" sometimes, in one way or another. It's a natural human tendency, and we can't be blamed for expressing it occasionally. And we are not apt to overdo it if we discover the need for humility.

Church is one place where this lesson can be learned. In God's House, we know instinctively how small we really are, which makes us more thankful for both His love and compassion.

We need this sense of coming down to size. We need to look with humble eyes at ourselves, at our fellow men, and at the miracles of God's creations.

Yes — we need to go to church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

de Gaulle Makes Sense . . .

There has been considerable American criticism leveled at French President, Charles de Gaulle in recent months. While there may be ample reason for the verbal attacks on the Frenchman's irascible nature, Americans would do well to pause and take a few lessons in economics from him.

During a press conference held early in 1966, President de Gaulle offered this simple explanation of the new French outlook on economics: "... Our development and our existence must not be at the discretion of others. That is why, for eight years, we have entirely stopped resorting to foreign gifts and credit and undertaken to pay the debts that we had accumulated. It was therefore necessary at last to put our balance of payments in equilibrium, to assure solidly the value of our currency and, consequently, to banish inflation. We have done so . . ."

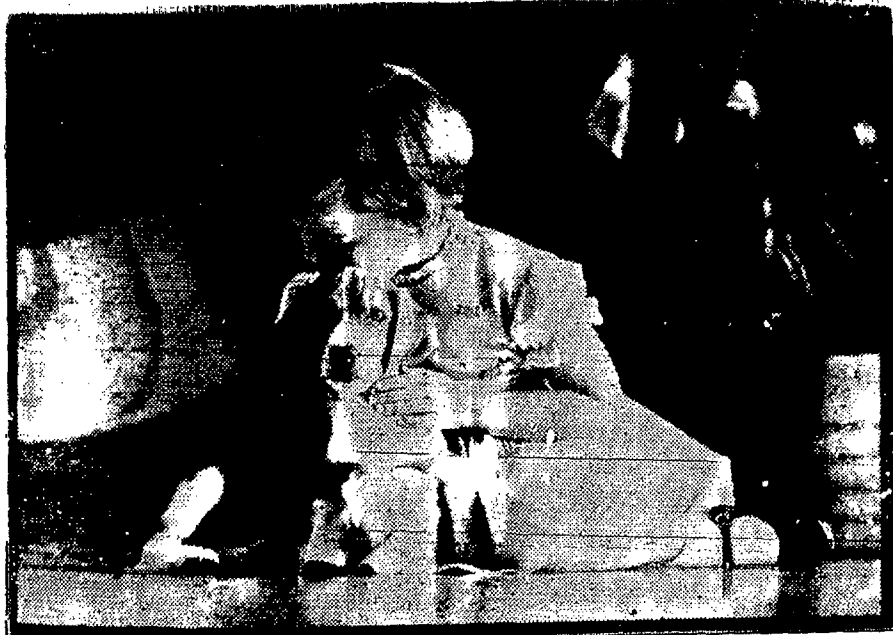

The American economy may not rely on foreign gifts and credit, but it certainly relies heavily on government deficits to finance its welfare programs, foreign aid, its low-interest loans for favored projects, etc. Meanwhile, our international balance of payments has been riding the negative side of the column, and an insidious growth of inflation eats away at the value of the American dollar. U. S. citizens ought to insist that their own economic house be put in order. If the French can do it, the U. S. ought to be able to do it even better.

The Free Society . . .

As more and more people seek to accommodate themselves to the apparently spreading belief that ever bigger government is inevitable, it is refreshing to read a few words from a booklet, entitled "The Power of Choice", issued recently by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. It says, "It is the free societies that have led the way in scientific progress, in invention, in applying invention to industrial use, and in turning the works of science to the good of the average man."

"It is the free societies that have given scope and liberty to the scientist to think his own thoughts and to turn his inventions and innovations to productive use. Consider how much of the industrial and scientific revolutions have been copied round the world from the European and American free societies. Does this not suggest a strong empirical connection between scientific progress in the useful arts and economic free enterprise? . . . The challenge is to maintain, in the face of unprecedented social and economic change, the values which have made this nation great . . . in any age, the great society is the free society."

In a free society, the powers of government are limited—a fact that many people seem to be forgetting.

Lt. Ivan Rice, for two years an employee at the Avalanche office, is now in the air service, with American fliers in England. He came to Grayling from Meredosia, Illinois, and his home town newspaper last week published an account of his bringing back to England a crippled bomber, on which he was a co-pilot, after it had been in battle over Germany. "Punctured by nearly a thousand bullet anti-aircraft holes the Flying Fortress 'Patches' really lived up to its name when it limped back to a U. S. Bomber Station in England from a raid on Kassel, Germany, June 30. The bomber reached Kassel without incident, the bombardier released the explosives and trouble began. Besieged by enemy fighters and bounced around by anti-aircraft explosives 'Patches' fought back to enemy coast despite jammed throttles, badly damaged controls, a chunk torn from the rudder and most of the elevator gone. The top turret gunner suffered a fractured leg, both waist gunners were knocked unconscious but shock was their only injury. The pilot was shot through the right hip and forced to relinquish the controls to the co-pilot Second Lt. Ivan Rice. It required the efforts and skill of both pilots to safely land the plane on a southern England field because a flat tire made the landing more difficult."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mathewson entertained at Richardson Lodge Monday evening with an open house for their son "Jo" who was leaving that evening to enter the Marine service. The guests included relatives as well as school friends. One of the features of the party was a huge cake decorated with flags and centered with a marine. Around the cake was the inscription "Good Luck, Marine."

Private Theima Hubbell, who trained for motor transport but paints with the hand of a genius, has prepared for the WAC dayroom one of the most fascinating murals yet to be done by any artist depicting woman's venture into man's world of war. This mural, eight by four feet, says in one sweeping gesture all the things of countless writers—have tried to say. Pvt. Hubbell received her basic training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. She joined the WAC detachment at Ft. Warren five weeks ago and has already set about to paint, in addition to her mural, a series of animated murals for the new post children's library. A native of Iowa, Pvt. Hubbell studied under Grant Wood at Cedar Rapids, Iowa and at the Art Institute of Chicago. The mural, which Pvt. Hubbell calls "United Souls" was suggested by the poem of the same name written by Pvt. Marjorie Roberts.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

August 12, 1966

Dear Editor:

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from Governor George Romney regarding the Big Wheel Skyline interchange on I-75. I hereby submit that I do not agree with Mr. Romney and I don't feel that the bureaucrats are serving the best interests of the motoring public and the down-trodden taxpayers of Crawford County.

John Horton, Crawford County Democratic Chairman
Following is the Governor's letter:

August 8, 1966

Mr. John Horton
Chairman, Democratic Party
Crawford County
Star Route
Grayling, Michigan 49738

Dear Mr. Horton:

Thank you for your letter and the attached copy of the "Crawford County Avalanche" with its front page article referring to the Big Wheel-Skyline area.

I am somewhat familiar with this problem and I recognize that the matter of a traffic interchange between the proposed I-75 and Skyline Road is a matter of some concern. However, I have every confidence that the State Highway Commissioners gave their best consideration to all the evidence presented, both in your meeting with them and in various discussions with their staff members. They must rely on the advice and recommendation of these staff members.

No doubt, you are aware that a location and the interchanges and their proximity to one another is a matter that is very closely controlled by the Federal Government - Bureau of Public Roads - and I am advised that this Federal agency concurs in the decisions of the Department of State Highways in this matter.

I am well aware of the fine reputation and integrity of both Director Hill and Deputy John E. Meyer. Their information to the Commission would not be biased in such matters.

Sincerely,
George Romney

School Board Minutes

The regular meeting of the interim board of trustees of the Crawford-AuSable School District, Crawford, Otsego and Kalkaska Counties, Michigan, was called to order by Dr. B. E. Henig, president, at 8:30 p. m. in the high school office, Grayling, on July 5th 1966.

Others present were Dr. Paul Dosch, Robert Smock, Patrick Harwood, Gerald Burns and Eva Strong, trustees and Supt. Joseph Stripe. Absent, Herald Riggs.

The minutes of the organization meeting held in the same place June 23rd were approved as read.

Bills 5835 through 5853 in the amount of $14,317.32 were unanimously approved for payment on motion of Smock supported by Dosch. The supt. was given approval to also pay any minor bills falling due before the next meeting.

The supt. explained a letter he had mailed to the teachers informing them of the salary schedule and requesting a report from them of their hours of study completed over and above a Bachelor degree. Contracts will be sent following the August 2 election.

The secretary was instructed to file the necessary forms for the name of the new district with the Supt. of COOR board and legal advisor Fred M. Thrun of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, Lansing office.

Checks for the Davenport Co. (architects) and Clinton Office Supply for new bookkeeping equipment were issued from the building and site fund.

Election places and workers were discussed. The supt. pointed out that under the new constitution it is not necessary to be a taxpayer in order to vote on millage up to 5 mills for a period not to exceed five years. One must be only a qualified registered voter.

Request for the use of classroom space, without charge, was denied to a profit-making organization, during school hours.

The insurance program on buildings, buses and driver-education cars was discussed.

The supt. was given approval to bus students only to "Battle of Bands" during month of July.

The salary for driver-education instructors was discussed.

The supt. announced state aid had been set at $278 per student with 5.03 mills deductible.

A motion of Harwood supported by Dosch was unanimously approved to ask the qualified electors in the district to vote for 5 mills for 5 years for school operation at the August 2 election. It was pointed out that only 6.03 mills were received from the County Allocation Board and at least 10 mills must be levied to receive full state aid. All state aid is lost if less than 8 mills is levied.

On motion of Harwood supported by Dosch it was agreed to publish the minutes of the interim board meetings and run an election notice.

The financial statement showed a balance in the general fund of $40,746.19 on June 30, 1966, with accounts payable of $26,206.00 which did not include summer costs for utilities, supplies, nor janitor and office help; the balance in the building and site fund was $15,724.10 with unpaid commitments of $5,080.00. The balance in the debt retirement fund was $65,543.88 with a payment of $20,000 due on the principal, and $13,653.13 on interest Sept. 1, 1966 and another interest payment in the same amount due March 1, 1967. The deficit of the hot lunch program was $286.16 for the school year.

Meeting adjourned 9:30 p. m. on motion of Smock supported by Dosch.

Eva Strong, sec'y.

WHEN TO APPLY FOR MEDICARE

When do I enroll in medicare if I'm not yet 65? This is a question the Traverse City social security office receives quite often, said E. O. Wiles, district manager.

Persons who are not yet 65 will have a seven month period in which to enroll for medicare. These seven months are the three months before the month they are 65, the month in which they are 65, and the three months after the month in which they are 65.

The medical insurance part of the health insurance program becomes effective on different dates depending on when the application is filed in the seven month period. It is a definite advantage to file in the three month period before the month of reaching age 65. The medical insurance is then effective with the first day of the month of your 65th birthday. If you apply in the month you are 65 or in the following three months, your medical insurance protection will not begin immediately, although you will have hospital insurance as soon as you apply.

A person who is not yet 65, but who is working or has worked under social security and has not filed an application, should get in touch with the social security office in the three months before he is 65. In this way you become entitled to the health insurance benefits, even though, because of your work, you may not receive a monthly benefit. Don't worry about your additional earnings; these will be automatically included in refiguring your benefit rate.

The Social Security Administration has always urged those persons who have not filed for benefits to get in touch with them three months before they are 65. Now with medicare it is more important to do so, said Mr. Wiles.

For further information, write, or call at the social security office, 1111 E. Front St., Traverse City. The office is now open Friday evenings until 9:00 p. m.

PLANT GRASS NOW

Establishing a new lawn? Do it now. Michigan State University researchers contend that Aug. 15 to Sept. 1 is the best time to establish new lawns. Planting made after Sept. 1 increase the chance of failure according to Dave Olson, County Natural Resource Agent.

Which grasses are best? Well, that depends on how much time and money you want to invest, the type of soil you have and whether or not you have a lot of shade on the lawn.

The Kentucky bluegrasses are adapted to heavier soils and sunny conditions, while the creeping red fescues are best adapted to lighter soils and shade.

If you're going to put extra care into your lawn—more fertilization, watering and mowing—Merion Kentucky bluegrass is probably the best bet. If you're thinking in terms of just average maintenance, you may choose any number of Kentucky bluegrass types such as common, Park or Delta. Or you may select from red fescue varieties such as Pennlawn, Rainier and common creeping.

Here are some general rules of thumb for lawn mixtures. For sunny areas of medium to low maintenance, 30 to 70 per cent of the mixture should include a common Kentucky bluegrass type such as common, Park or Delta. The remainder of the mixture should contain 30 to 70 percent creeping red fescue, with Pennlawn being the preferred variety.

If you have a heavy soil—such as a clay loam—your lawn seed mixture should be predominately bluegrass. On light soils (sand to sandy loam) use predominantly red fescues.

For sunny lawns of high maintenance, grass mixtures should include 10 to 20 per cent of Merion Kentucky bluegrass, 30 to 60 per cent of Kentucky bluegrass (common Park or Delta) and 30 to 70 per cent of creeping red fescue (Pennlawn).

In shaded areas, use 20 to 30 per cent common Kentucky bluegrass (common, Park or Delta), and 70 to 80 per cent Pennlawn red fescue.

In general avoid coarse or weedy perennial grasses. These include the ryegrasses, tall fescue, redtop and bentgrass.

But there are two situations when 20 to 25 per cent ryegrass may be added; (1) where grass is to be established on a steep slope where erosion is a problem and where rapid establishment is desirable, and (2) where extremely droughty conditions exist and where mulching or irrigation are not practical.

We're Habit-Forming

(Isn't That Nice!)

One of the nicest things that we discovered during the past months is that, more and more, our readers are becoming addicted to the news, pictures, advertising and features printed each week in these pages.

We have also discovered that more and more people are forming the Avalanche reading habit regularly. We have to keep increasing the number of copies that we print. (We think this is also very nice.)

We intend to continue to print every worthwhile item of news that you call to our attention. We plan also to continue to print all of the news that is of importance or interest to the people of the entire community. (These are the things that we call to your attention.) Our habitual readers are nice people. The nicest that you will find anywhere. They read the news, see themselves and their friends in the pictures, and they read the advertisements. They like them mixed together as we print them. (That way they are sure to see them, too.)

Naturally, we want all of the advertising we can get. It is what allows us to produce a newspaper that we plan to make even more habit-forming in the future. However, we do not solicit advertising from outside of the Crawford County trading area. Sometimes it appears that we are not very bright to have such a policy, but we have used the policy for so many years that it too has become a habit.

We think we can serve our advertisers best if we try to bring readers, and customers, into the community, not make them leave it. We believe that our advertisers can serve the customers best too, if we maintain this policy. (We hope they both agree.)

V.F.W. AUXILIARY POST 3736

The Crawford County V.F.W. Auxiliary Post 3736 met on Sunday, August 14 with 8 members present.

Secretary Betty Shuck read some real nice letters as our meetings are getting more interesting.

Don't forget the 53rd National Convention of the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW to be held in New York City August 19 to 26, 1966.

The national president, Mrs. Sam Goldstein of Chicago, Illinois will conduct the national meetings at which time the work of the many departments will be recognized. National officers for the coming year will be elected.

The auxiliary was organized in 1914 with service to veterans and their families as a primary goal. There are approximately 400,000 members. Although the national president appoints directors to outline objectives for the projects the actual work is carried out on both local and department levels.

Auxiliary members annually give more than 3 million dollars and more than 6 million volunteer hours to the many programs of the VFW Auxiliary. Through membership women gain an opportunity to make friends, receive leadership training for civic affairs and join others in volunteering their services to aid veterans and their families.

As this is a new group locally we did not have any attendance at the national convention this year.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be Sunday, August 28th at 8 p. m. in Moose Hall basement. So please girls let's have a nice turn out this time.
